

Ch-1 (History)

The Rise of nationalism in Europe

* Q/Ans-

Q1- Write a short note on:-

- a) Giuseppe Mazzini
- b) Count Camillo de Cavour
- c) The Greek war of independence
- d) Frankfurt parliament
- e) Role of women in nationalist struggle.

Ans → (a) (i) He was born in Genoa in 1805.

(ii) He was a part of a secret society in Carbonari.

(iii) He was sent into exile in 1831 for attempting a revolution in Liguria.

(iv) He formed 2 secret societies, Young Italy in Marseilles and Young Europe in Bern in 1831.

(v) He opined that nations had to be natural units of mankind, according to God and hence, Italy should be united nation instead of a patchwork of kingdoms.

(vi) Duke Metternich called him 'the most dangerous enemy of own social order.

(b) ⇒ (o) He was the CM of Sardinia - piedmont state.

(o) He led movements to unify Italy.

(o) He was ~~not~~ neither a revolutionary nor a democrat.

; he belonged to educated and wealthy elite.

(o) He spoke French ~~better~~ better than Italian, like

~~not~~ many Italian elites of that time.

(o) He used diplomacy rather than war to achieve unification.

(o) He formed diplomatic alliance with France, which

~~He~~ helped ~~Sardinia~~ Sardinia - piedmont defeat

Austria in 1859, and liberate Northern Italy from

~~the~~ Austrian control.

(c) ⇒ (o) Greek war of independence of 1821 was a successful war waged ~~for~~ for independence of Greece which had been part of ottoman empire since 15th Century.

(o) Revolutionary ~~nationalists~~ nationalism inspired this struggle. West Europeans and greeks in prison supported this struggle against the huge muslim empire.

- (c) Greek poets and artists used rich, ancient ~~and~~ heritage culture of Greece to mobilize public opinion.
- (c) The treaty of Constantinople ~~of~~ declared Greece independent in July 1832.
- (d) ⇒ (c) On 18 May, 1848, 831 elected representatives marched in a festive procession to take their place in Frankfurt parliament convened in church of St. Paul.
- (c) A constitution was drafted which instructed that the German nation to be headed by a monarchy subject to a parliament.
- (c) The King of Prussia, Friedrich Wilhelm IV, joined other monarchs to oppose elected assembly.
- (c) The social basis of parliament was eroded as the opposition grew stronger.
- (c) The parliament was dominated by the middle class who resisted the demands of workers and artisans and consequently lost their support.
- (c) The Assembly was ^{later} disbanded in 1849.

- e) 1) Women joined ~~to~~ liberal-nationalist movements across Europe.
- 2) They created their own political platform & association.
 - 3) They were often excluded from ~~political~~ political rights such as voting.
 - 4) During the convening of the Frankfurt parliament, women were allowed to see the proceedings from visitor's gallery.

Q2- What steps did the French revolutionaries take to create a sense of collective identity among French people?

Ans- 1) Notions of le citoyen and la patrie was introduced.

- 2) New French flag, the tricolour was introduced to replace the former royal standard.
- 3) New hymns were composed, oaths were taken and ~~may the~~ martyrs were remembered.
- 4) Regional language was discouraged and French was made the common ^{language} of nation to facilitate interaction.
- ~~5) Universal laws of~~
- 5) Uniform laws of weight & measures ~~at~~ & currency was introduced.
- 6) The new centralised administrative system formulated uniform laws for all citizens and abolished internal duties.

Q3- Who were Marianne and Germania? What was the importance of the way in which they were portrayed?

Ans- Marianne was the allegory of France, which wore a red cap & tricolour.

Germania was the allegory of Germany, which wore a crown of oak leaves which represent heroism.

The way they were portrayed was to spread the feeling of national unity among citizens.

Q4- Briefly trace the process of German unification.

Ans- (1) After an failed attempt to unify Germany in 1848, which was suppressed by the combined forces of monarch, military and Junkers. Then CM Otto von Bismarck was the architect of the process of unification of Germany with assistance from Prussian army and bureaucracy.

Page No. _____
Date _____

(2) In January 1871, the Prussian King, Kaiser Wilhelm I was proclaimed as the German emperor at the ~~cerm~~ ceremony ~~he~~ held at Versailles after 3 wars over 7 years.

(3) The new German state focused on modernising the currency and updating banking, legal and judicial system in Germany.

Q5- What changes did Napoleon introduce to make administrative system more efficient in the territories ruled by him?

Ans- 1) Simplification of administrative divisions to ~~enact~~ encourage uniformity.

2) Abolition of all the privileges by birth.

3) Abolition of feudal system.

4) Establishment of equality before the law and the right to property was secured.

5) He removed restrictions on guilds.

6) He freed peasants from serfdom and manorial dues.

7) He improved transport & communication services.

8) He introduced common national currency.

9) Establishment of universal laws and standardizing

Page No. _____
Date _____

Q6- Explain what is meant by 1848 revolution of liberals? What were the political, social and economic ideas supported by liberals?

Ans- The educated middle class led the revolution of liberals in 1848. They emphasised upon following principals -

- i) Politically they wanted govt. by consent and freedom of press.
- ii) Socially they wanted abolition of all privileges by birth.
- iii) Economically they wanted abolition of state imposed restrictions on trade.

Q7- Choose 3 examples to show the contribution of culture to the growth of nationalism in Europe?

Ans- 1. Language :- used in churches and schools to resist cultural assimilation.

2. Romanticism :- Emphasized emotions, heritage, and folklore to build a shared national spirit.

3. Folk culture :- Through stories and music created a collective identity and solidarity.

Page No. _____
Date _____

Q8- Through a focus on any 2 countries, explain how nation developed over 19th Century?

★
Ans- The development of Germany and Italy Italian nation state in the 19th Century:-

1. Political fragmentation:- Until the mid 18th Century, both Germany and Italy were divided into Kingdoms and were ruled by different Kings.

2. Revolutionary uprising:- In 1848, the liberal middle class in Germany attempted to unify through a national assembly, but it failed. In Italy, revolutionary like Mazzini also tried to unify Italy in 1848, but were unsuccessful.

3. Unification through army:-

•) Germany was unified by Otto von Bismarck with the help of Prussian army and bureaucracy and make Germany independent in 1871.

•) Italy was united by CM Cavour with help of France and was supported by Giuseppe Garibaldi in 1861.

Page No. _____
Date _____

Q9- How was the history of nationalism in Britain unlike the rest of Europe?

Ans- The process of nation building of Britain was unlike the rest of Europe because -

- 1) Britain was not unified through struggle or war.
- 2) Spread over the long time, the process was spearheaded by England's economic, political and diplomatic divisions.
- 3) ~~The~~ It was able to suppress other nations. The English parliament thereafter forged the nation together through the act called the "Act of Union 1707".

Q10- Why did nationalist tensions emerge in the Balkans?

Ans- Nationalist tensions emerged in the Balkans due to decline of ottoman empire and spread of Romantic nationalism. Diff. Slavic communities wanted independence and often clashed over territory.

Imperial powers like Russia, Germany, England, and Austro-Hungary also wanted to control over the region. These rivalries led to increasing conflict ~~over~~ and ~~was~~ ultimately contributed to the outbreak of the WWI in 1914.